

Masonic Homes of California

In 1898, the spirit of Masonic charity and the need to assist the widows and orphans of Masons led to the creation of the Masonic Homes of California. These retirement communities in Union City and Covina offer care and services tailored to the changing needs of the individual and designed to help residents enjoy the best possible quality of life. Residents share common interests built upon the solid foundation of Masonic values.

Masonic Home at Union City

Founded in 1898 and located on 267 acres in Northern California, this unique continuing care retirement community currently provides independent living, assisted living, memory care, and skilled nursing care to about 300 senior residents.

Masonic Home at Covina

Originally established in 1909 as an orphanage, the 33-acre Masonic Home at Covina currently provides independent and assisted living is now home to about 80 seniors in a neighborhood setting.

Masonic Senior Outreach

Masonic Senior Outreach offers assistance with the services and resources fraternal family members need to stay healthy and safe at home or in a retirement facility in the home community.

Masonic Family Outreach

These support services are available to California Masons and their families who need help dealing with complex issues such as the impact of divorce, the stresses of a special needs child, job loss, and other significant life challenges.

For more information about the above programs, contact Masonic Assistance at masonicassistance@mhcuc.org or call 888/466-3642.

Acacia Creek

The Acacia Creek senior community, located on the campus of the Masonic Home at Union City, is a Continuing Care Retirement Community that provides independent-living residences for Masons, their wives and widows, members of allied organizations, and residents of local communities. For more information, call 888/466-3642.

Making the world a better place